Boys Will Be Men: Masculinity, Victimization, and Offending

Boys To Men: Masculinity, Victimization, and Offending (B2M) is an evidence-based, non-profit organization and training program for youth development professionals, which works with organizations and agencies to help young men and boys become healthy, connected, and resilient adults. By engaging men and boys in social norms transformation, B2M aims to achieve Agenda 2030 and the SDGs High Level Political Forum on Sustainable Development.

Boys and men are diverse with respect to their race, ethnicity, culture, migration status, age, socioeconomic status, ability status, sexual orientation, gender identity, and religious Masculinity ideology is a set of doctrines, prescriptions, and pre-scriptions of men as a group that serves to protect and uphold society's traditions and morality. This role extended to boys, whose sisters worked. There was also a reference to the need to 'clean up' society from groups like homosexuals, men, and boys. The Council for Boys and Young Men is a strengths-based group model that addresses risk factors and empowers participants to find belonging, build assets, and deconstruct harmful masculinities beliefs on their journey toward becoming respectful leaders and connected allies in their community.
